

Terminal Entry and Driver Courtesy

To: GPA Motor Carriers

Georgia Ports is committed to ensuring a safe, secure, and respectful environment for all terminal users.

Drivers are expected to follow all instructions from Port Police and maintain professional conduct at all times.

As a reminder, all drivers entering GPA terminals are subject to screening of their person and vehicle in accordance with federal regulations (33 CFR 105.255).

Entry to the terminal constitutes consent to inspection; refusal to comply could result in denial of access.

Use of profanity, threats, refusal to follow directives, or other unprofessional behavior may result in suspension or revocation of port access.

We appreciate your continued courtesy and professionalism as we work together to keep cargo flowing safely and efficiently — and help you grow your business.
